Santa Cruz Art League creates an environment where local as well as regional & national artists display their art. The many classes in art and performance provide a space for learning and enhancing the creative process. Established in 1919, Santa Cruz Art League is Santa Cruz County's longest standing Arts organization, and is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit.

Exhibition Details

From the romantic painters of the late 18th century to now, artists have long had a fascination — and deep respect — for the planet on which we exist. Bringing together art and science in acts of creativity and activism, Planet Pulse will feature artists who help to bring planet Earth and climate change to the forefront of cultural conversations.

Open to nationwide residents. Any media will be accepted, 2D and 3D. The SCAL reserves the right to decline or remove any work that does not conform to the agreement.

Eligibility

Open to United States residents, must be 18 years old or older. The Santa Cruz Art League reserves the right to decline or remove any work that does not conform to the agreement.
